

Outdoor Women of New Jersey's Turkey Hunting Workshop

April 6-7, 2019 in Estell Manor, NJ
9:00 am on April 6 to 12:00 pm on April 7

The Women's Turkey Hunting Workshop is part of the NJ Division of Fish and Wildlife's "Outdoor Women of New Jersey" (O.W.N.J.) program. O.W.N.J. workshops are designed to provide women 18 years of age or older with a welcoming environment in which to learn outdoor skills.

Workshop Overview:

This workshop offers women who have completed hunter education and are interested in learning the basics to go out and turkey hunt. Participants will learn about turkey biology, hunting regulations, equipment and techniques, scouting, planning your hunt, and turkey calling. Participants will meet at 9:00 a.m. at the Atlantic County Game Preserve's Clubhouse in Estell Manor, NJ on Saturday, April 6. The Clubhouse will serve as the workshop location and lodging for participants. Saturday morning will be spent receiving instruction from Division biologists and expert turkey hunters. Saturday afternoon will be spent in the field identifying turkey sign, practicing turkey calling, patterning your firearm/bow, and identifying how to plan your turkey hunt. On Sunday morning we'll get up way before sunrise to go and listen for turkeys.

Workshop Fee:

$30.00. Fee includes meals, lodging, 1-year membership to National Wild Turkey Foundation, plus some turkey hunting giveaways.

Facilities:

The Atlantic County Game Preserve's Clubhouse is located on Route 50 in Estell Manor, NJ. It features a lounge area, kitchen, dining room, bathrooms with showers, and one large 16-bunk room where all the participants will be staying.
